

HILLEL

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

REMEMBERING BILL BERMAN (Z"l) (1917-2016)

Being a Berman Fellow allowed me to jumpstart my career in Jewish non-profit work. It was through my interactions with Bill that I was able to grasp the value of the work being done on campus and its impact on the greater Jewish peoplehood.

MAX HENDRIX
(2015-2016)

The Berman Fellowship made an indelible impact on my future rabbinic work. My time at Hillel showed me a broad cross section of the Jewish world, which allowed me to think critically about how to solve the many challenges facing us today.

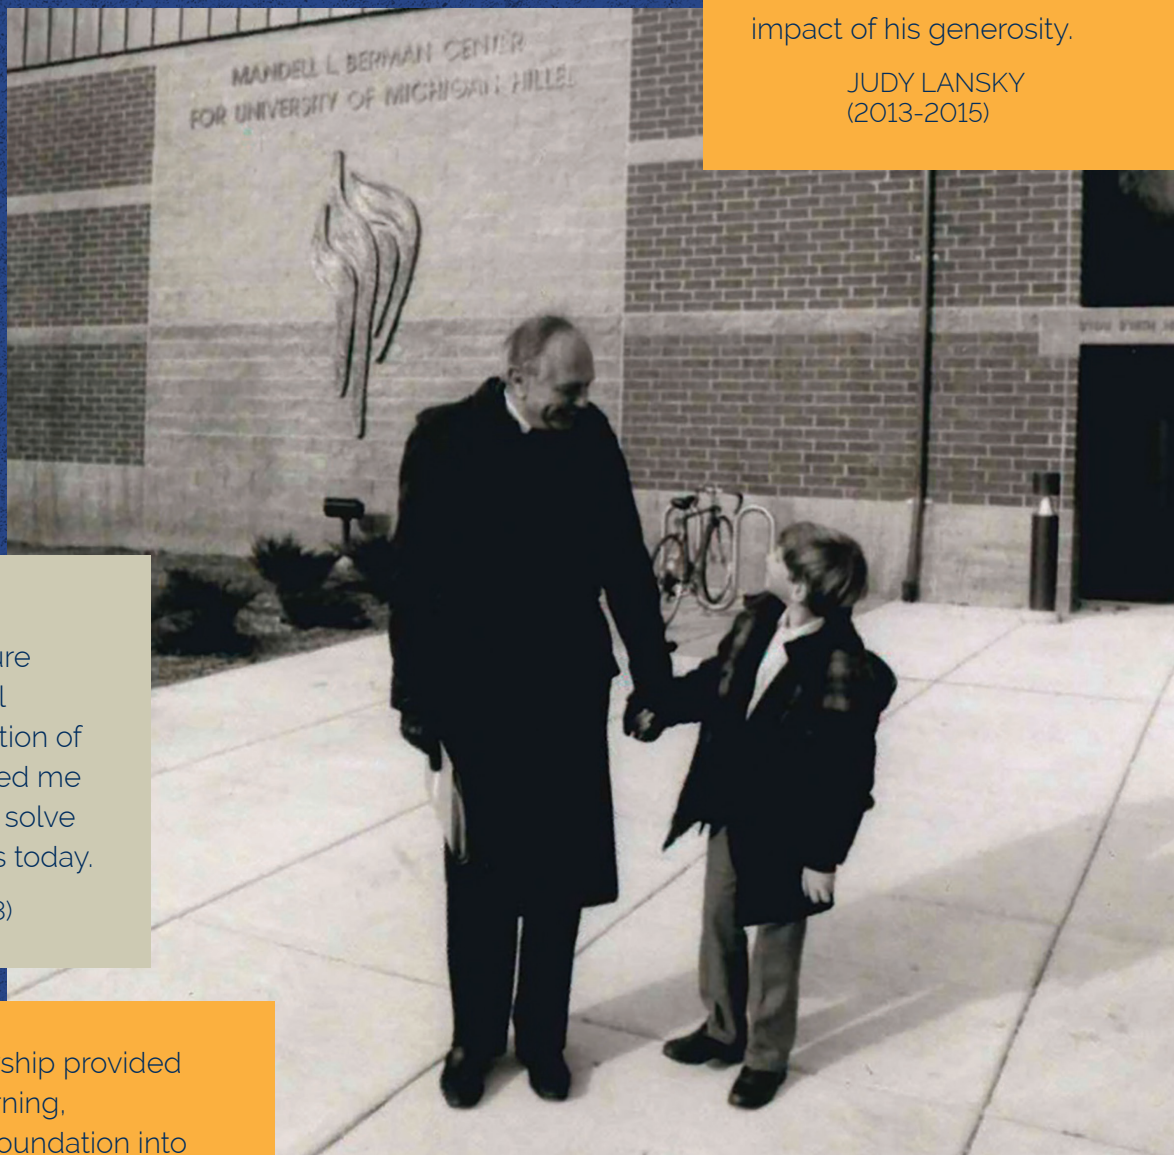

MATT GREEN (2012-2013)

The Berman Fellowship provided me with Jewish learning, mentorship, and a foundation into the Jewish communal field that I would not have been able to access in other entry-level positions. I was fortunate to have spent time with Bill Berman (z"l), and it was always clear that he felt personally invested in my success.

ALLIE CONN KANTER
(2011-2013)

As a Berman Fellow, I was able to grow professionally while being supported in finding the next step for my career. Bill Berman's (z"l) love and passion for the Michigan Jewish community became my own and brought me to the Jewish Federation of Metro Detroit, where I continue to feel the impact of his generosity.

JUDY LANSKY
(2013-2015)

Mr. Berman (z"l) was a perfect role model of someone who was deeply committed to the Jewish community, but who knew that truly supporting the community meant relying on the leaders on the ground to find the best way to strengthen the Jewish community.

MICHAEL SPITULNIK (2010-2012)

Over the past year as Chair of Michigan Hillel, I have witnessed firsthand the growth and development of our community.

Despite political and social change, both on campus and across the United States, I have been consistently impressed with how our Hillel has stayed true to its core values.

In large part, we owe this steadfastness to Bill Berman (z"l), our Honorary Chairperson and a constant champion of the Hillel and Metro Detroit Jewish communities. His generous nature and ambitious attitude left their mark on Hillel, across generations. In the first annual report since his passing, it is only fitting to honor Bill's legacy by continuing to uphold the ideals for which he advocated.

In this light, I am proud to see how Hillel has evolved in so many ways, yet, ultimately, its message of community has remained at the center of all we do. As a safe, welcoming community center for all, even in this tumultuous sociopolitical climate, I know that Hillel will continue to make a positive impact, both on the Jewish community as well as the University campus as a whole.

Along with Tilly Shames, our excellent staff, and our Student Governing Board, I look forward to another wonderful year for Michigan Hillel.

Bob Stone
Board of Trustees, Chair

As I start my 10th year at Michigan Hillel, it feels like just yesterday I arrived as a Berman Fellow. I did not realize I was being invested in to lead one of the country's preeminent Jewish institutions. This could not have happened without Bill Berman (z"l), who had a vision of investing in someone who could one day take on a greater leadership role in our Hillel.

Bill was my first "Michigan Mensch" - my own Michigan mentor guiding me into this leadership role with his knowledge of our Hillel, the Michigan community, and the national Jewish landscape. I never tired of his stories and was grateful for every time he would call to check in on how his Hillel was doing. I learned so much about how to be a leader in our Jewish community from my time with Bill.

Bill would have loved this Annual Report - to see the smiling faces of happy students and the numbers behind those smiles. To see the students picking up their ShabUM dinners and to know 1,200 students experienced ShabUM. Or to see the Passover seder in a student's home and to know it was one of 45, reaching 650 students.

I hope the students, stories and numbers of this newsletter fill you with the same pride in our Hillel as it would Bill. And I thank you all for being a part of our success.

Tilly Shames
Executive Director

LEADERS & BEST

Thank You to Our Leaders

While I had always dreamed of going to Michigan, I was nervous as a Freshman about how I would find my place at such a large school. That first Shabbat dinner, however, showed me how amazing my college experience would be. At a school like Michigan, how was it possible that more than 500 students came to Hillel on a Friday night? Since then, I have been so proud to be an active member of this community.

Our Hillel is as strong as it is thanks to the dedication and devotion of our student leaders. They put in hours of work each week to make the Jewish Community and campus as a whole a better place. Students involved in Central Student Government, Greek Life, the arts, and many other groups make time in their busy schedules to come to Hillel. Our community has many different interests, but the individuals involved maintain a strong connection to the Jewish religion and culture.

I would like to thank all of our student leaders, staff members, trustees, and donors who have made Michigan Hillel so special. It has truly shaped my life and I am so excited and sad to be entering my Senior year. The time at Michigan goes by too fast, but I have loved every minute of it. As a die-hard Michigan fan, I have to end with a quote from Bo Schembechler that exemplifies the Hillel Community:

"Who's got it better than us? NOBODY!"

JOSH BLUM ('18), GOVERNING BOARD CHAIR

Executive Dinner

At the beginning of the 2016-2017 school year, the Hillel Governing and Programming Boards put on an Executive Dinner for the student leaders of Hillel's many groups. The main goal of this dinner was to create a community of leadership and connect the various leaders of Hillel to encourage further collaboration.

EITAN KATZ ('17)

The Hillel Gala

In March, the Hillel Governing Board partnered with OY to host the Hillel Gala with comedian Benji Lovitt. The Gala is an annual event to recognize Hillel leaders for their achievements and celebrate major events of the year. This year, the evening included several senior student speakers and a slideshow of major Hillel events. Benji Lovitt garnered laughs as he cracked jokes about the differences between Americans and Israelis.

NOAH SELIGSON ('19)

Justice Bernstein on Inclusion

Justice Richard Bernstein spoke at Hillel about the importance of inclusion in our community and overcoming adversity, as part of the University's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Initiative. Bringing in Justice Bernstein was a tremendous honor for our community and his inspiring lecture left everyone with a newfound perspective on how to treat others who are different than themselves and how to create a more welcoming community for all to feel comfortable in.

SARAH PARKES ('18)

The Coffee Date Revolution

The Governing and Programming Boards expanded our approach to engaging our peers by partaking in a coffee date training held at a local coffee shop, Roos Roast. John, the owner, explained the coffee roasting and cupping process. Students then engaged in coffee chats, followed by a training session on a new Hillel coffee date follow-up method. Students greatly enjoyed this leadership training and used the event to develop a new engagement initiative called "The Coffee Date Revolution" to engage as many students as possible over coffee.

WELCOME WEEK FESTIVITIES

Open House BBQ

The Open House BBQ is one of the most exciting events of the year. After a long summer break, students are able to reconnect with old friends, make new friends, and become involved in Hillel, all while eating delicious BBQ. This event gave me the opportunity to be successful in Michigan's Jewish community by learning more about Hillel.

MARA CRANIS ('18)

Freshman Welcome Dinner

I first attended Hillel with my family at the Freshman Welcome to Campus Dinner in the fall before classes started. Everyone was so welcoming, and Hillel was a very comforting place to be as I was adjusting to college life. Since then, I have attended Shabbat dinner on a regular basis and have taken up leadership opportunities at Hillel including First Year Students of Hillel and Challah for Hunger.

EMILY AFRICK ('20)

Committing to a school as big as Michigan was a bit overwhelming. I found it very comforting to have Hillel reach out and help first year students establish a network before the school year started. At the Welcome to Campus dinner I had the chance to meet several Hillel staff members as well as student leaders and learn about the opportunities Hillel offers. This led to my involvement in several Hillel student groups and activities including Hillel Outdoor Adventures, I-Lead, HaYerukim, Good Deeds Day, and weekly Shabbat dinners!

YOAV JACOB ('20)

FYSH Ben and Jerry's

Dahlia Cohen ('20) and I met during Welcome Week 2016 at the Ben & Jerry's event put on by Hillel for first-year students. We were both starstruck when we found out that Jerry from Ben & Jerry's was at the event. We decided to approach him to ask for a selfie, and though we didn't know each other at all, I think we both knew that this would be the start to a great friendship. Fast forward one year, and now we're roommates. We just celebrated our one year friendiversary after staffing the Ben & Jerry's event during Welcome Week 2017 as FYSH leaders together.

SARAH BRONER ('20)

First Shabbat of the Year

The first Shabbat back at school is always the first time I see my friends after the long summer. Services are super spirited and dinner is lively with around 500 people in attendance. Green Auditorium is bustling with everyone catching up. This Shabbat is always the one where my friends and I linger the longest because we miss our Hillel family so much.

REBECCA LEEMAN ('18)

SHABBAT AND HOLIDAYS AROUND CAMPUS

Passover in the Home

Passover is a time of year that our students can feel particularly homesick. At the same time, it is when they have the chance to take ownership over their Jewish experiences by creating a meaningful Seder experience for their peers, whether in Hillel or in their own homes, all supported by staff. This year we had an unprecedented 45 seders in students' homes.

It was so rewarding seeing my friends reading the same story that my family has read for my entire life... some of our friends (who aren't Jewish) were so excited to be included and to learn about our traditions and the Passover holiday.

FRANCESCA BENNETT ('18)

I enjoyed bringing all the Jewish people in my fraternity together. Hearing Zach Fernandez ('20) lead the Seder was also great and it was nice to hear everyone reading part of the Haggadah.

MATT CAPLAN ('19)

ShabUM

ShabUM provided my friends and I with the perfect opportunity to disconnect from the chaos of the outside world and to reconnect with each other and recharge. On November 11th, along with over 1200 students, we participated in one of more than 50 Shabbat dinners hosted across campus. Surrounded by friends and way too much food, we had a typical Shabbat experience; but, it was an experience that we, as college students, sometimes forget to make a priority. ShabUM reminded us of Shabbat's significance in our lives.

REBECCA SOVERINSKY ('17)

Hayerukim Presents: Acai Bowl Tu B'shvat Seder

This year HaYerukim, Hillel's environmental group, hosted a Tu B'shvat Acai Bowl Seder. The event included a make-your-own acai bowl station and tables for students to mingle with information pamphlets explaining the relationship between the environment and Tu B'shvat. There was also a guest speaker who spoke about the holiday and how it relates to sustainability.

IVY KLEE ('19)

Shabbat in the Dorms

FYSH (First Year Students of Hillel) hosted Shabbat in the Dorms, where Jewish freshmen were able to enjoy an intimate Shabbat dinner without leaving their residence halls. There was a great turn out at each location and we were so happy to be able to bring a taste of the Hillel community to the dorms through great food and great conversations.

LILAH KALFUS ('20)

ISRAEL EXPERIENCES AND CONFERENCES

iEngage

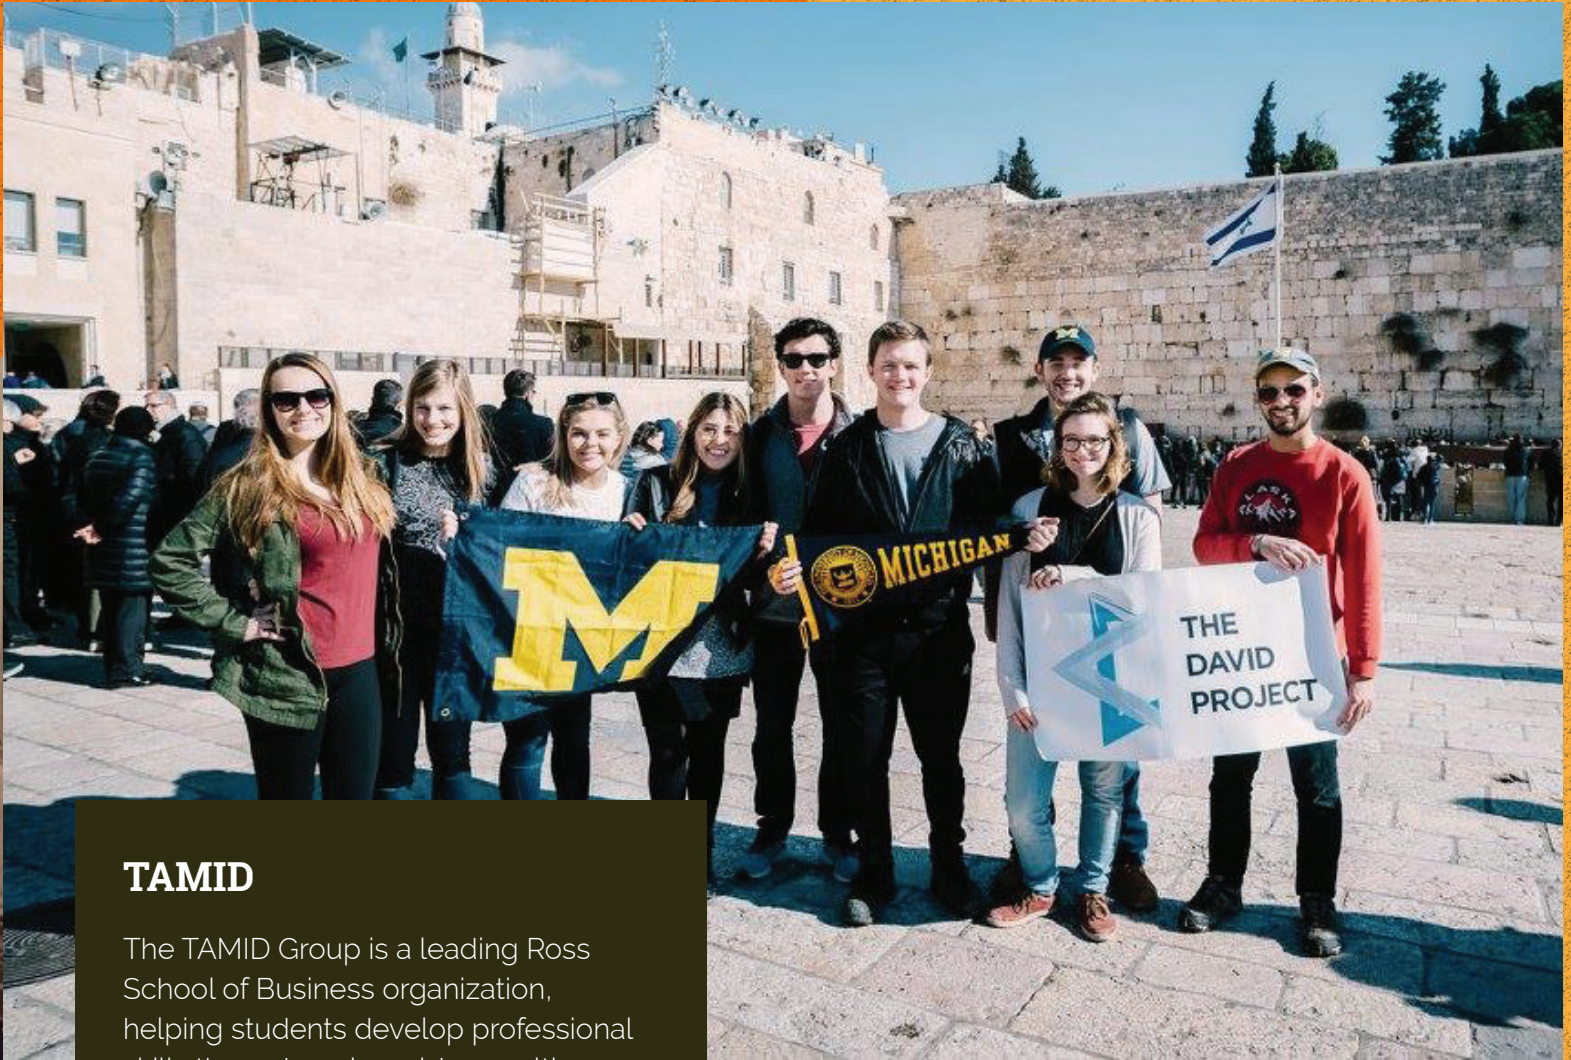

This past winter break, nine students from Michigan traveled to Israel to attend the Hartman Institute iEngage Program. This program featured six days of intensive learning, discussion, and networking with students from across the country. We learned from some of the foremost Jewish thinkers of today, including Donniel Hartman, Yossi Klein HaLevi, and former Member of Knesset Ruth Calderon. At the Hartman Institute, we discussed various topics relating to Jewish identity and how to better engage with others whose views may differ from our own. Students gained a lot from this experience and are bringing a new enthusiasm for discussing Israel back to campus.

NATAN GOROD ('18)

AIPAC Policy Conference

This year, more than 40 Michigan students attended the AIPAC (American Israel Public Affairs Committee) Policy Conference. It was an amazing opportunity for students to come together over their support for Israel, connect with the broader pro-Israel movement, and acquire the skills to strengthen their advocacy work on campus and beyond. After three days of learning about the U.S.-Israel relationship and seeing the direct impact of lobbying their members of Congress, students were reenergized and ready to tackle the issues facing Israel on our campus.

EMMA FRUCHTMAN ('19)

TAMID

The TAMID Group is a leading Ross School of Business organization, helping students develop professional skills through real-world consulting and investing work. TAMID integrates the next generation of entrepreneurs and business professionals with Israel through a comprehensive education curriculum, pro-bono consulting for Tel Aviv-based startups, capital market investment research, and the opportunity for a summer internship program in Tel Aviv. On the summer fellowship program, members are engrained in the business ecosystem and tech hub that is Tel Aviv, working at leading startups, VCs, and banks, hearing from top Israeli entrepreneurs and venture capitalists, and visiting the campuses of Google and Facebook. This past summer, TAMID at Michigan had the privilege of sending 19 fellows to Israel on the fellowship program.

David Project

The David Project's Israel Uncovered: Campus Leaders Mission brings Jewish and non-Jewish student leaders to Israel giving them a first hand experience with Israel's dynamic and complex society.

This past winter break I had the opportunity to go on Israel Uncovered as 1 of 4 Jews. I was surrounded by 35 cultured, intellectual, and diverse students traveling through one of most debated about countries in the world. Hearing speakers from the Palestinian Authority and a Settlement Governing Board, and performing bomb shelter exercises, all contributed to one of the most thought-provoking, influential trips I've ever been on.

Survivors Luncheon

This was my second SHARE luncheon and it was just as powerful, if not more, than the first. I cherish each story I hear from a survivor, as it is my responsibility to be passing these stories onto the next generation.

RINA STEINBERG ('19)

Daffodil Planting

For the second year in a row, students gathered with SHARE to plant daffodils as part of the worldwide Daffodil Project, which aims to plant 1.5 million daffodils to honor the children lost in the Holocaust. We plant daffodils as a tribute to this lost generation to symbolize the Jewish people's resilience, as daffodils grow back stronger each year. Months after planting, the daffodils bloomed vibrantly outside Hillel, creating a beautiful memorial to the memories of those lost and a reminder to keep working toward the future we hope for.

MELISSA BERLIN ('19)

ASB Poland

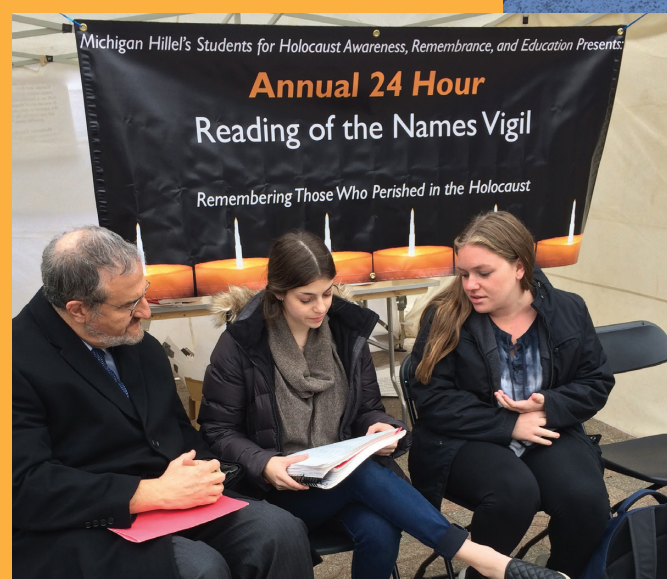

Hillel ran its first Alternative Spring Break to Poland, allowing 10 students and two group leaders to see and reflect upon what Jewish life was like in Poland prior to World War II through how the revitalization of Jewish life in Poland has fared since the fall of Communism. This trip was an extraordinary opportunity as Poland has a lot to offer not only in the way of Holocaust education, but Jewish education more broadly. I returned from Poland with a greater appreciation for my Jewish history, my Jewish values, and my Jewish identity.

FRANCESCA BENNETT ('18)

Holocaust Remembrance Vigil

Our annual 24 Hour Holocaust Remembrance Day Vigil began with a meaningful Havdalah ceremony and lighting six Yahrzeit candles in honor of the six million Jews whose lives were taken. Throughout the Vigil, students read the names of those who perished as a way to honor the victims. The program concluded with a ceremony that allowed for meaningful conversations with three Holocaust survivors. It was especially touching to hear from Ann Arbor resident and survivor, Irene Butter, who offered her perspective on being a child survivor and the current climate for Jews in the United States.

Golden Apple

This year was the 27th Annual Golden Apple Award honoring Dr. Ed Cho. The Golden Apple Award is the only University-wide student nominated teaching award recognizing outstanding teaching. The event honoring Dr. Cho, a professor in the Economics Department, had over 500 guests who heard his ideal last lecture, "The Unexpected Benefits of Passion, Pain, and Pets". His students, colleagues, and other members of the Michigan community came together to celebrate his accomplishment.

ALLISA NEWMAN ('17)

Nice Jewish Ball

Students had a ball at this year's annual Hillel dance, "NJB: Nice Jewish Ball." We ventured to the Detroit Zoo to celebrate with old and new friends, great music, and dancing. It was incredible to see our campus community come together to create a diverse and energetic environment.

JOLIE HORNE ('19)

Black-Jewish Relations

This past year, Hillel was fortunate to have a guest scholar in residence Yavilah McCoy for an educational, thought-provoking Shabbat in conjunction with the Black Student Union (BSU) and NOiR Fashion Runway. The purpose of the weekend was to focus on racial diversity and what it means to be an ally. This event included a talk Thursday night on racial justice at the Trotter Multicultural Center, a post-Friday night dinner discussion at Hillel, and an intimate Saturday workshop on leadership and applying the skills we learned from those previous two nights. Yavilah pushed students to think deeply and thoughtfully about the importance of intersectionality and building a stronger coalition between the Jewish and Black communities on campus.

OY Apple Picking

OY welcomed in the fall semester with a trip to Wiards Orchards. What better way to celebrate the Jewish New Year than with something as sweet as fresh cider and donuts?! Together we checked out the petting zoo, found just about every apple-flavored good you could find, and picked the freshest apples in town.

JULIA BERG ('18)

FYSH Bonfire

The FYSH Bonfire is Hillel's yearly Welcome Week hangout where Jewish first year students can meet one another before classes start. It's an amazing opportunity to create relationships with individuals who will encourage you to branch out and explore what you are passionate about both at Hillel and the greater Michigan campus.

NEIL SCHWARTZ ('19)

SOCIAL ACTION

#weremember Campaign

Hillel collaborated with the Michigan Refugee Assistance Program (MRAP) to put together a video campaign for "We Remember" and "We Stand with Refugees". The video drew a parallel between Jewish history and the treatment of refugees today. Hillel continued to collaborate with MRAP and work on projects to support local refugees through organizations like Jewish Family Services.

ALI ROSENBLATT ('19)

Good Deeds Day

On April 2nd, Michigan Hillel participated in Good Deeds Day for the second time. The mission of Good Deeds Day is to unite people from around the world in doing good deeds for others and the planet. On this day, we made a real difference in the community with over 70 volunteers in 6 locations throughout Ann Arbor and Metro Detroit.

COOKING AND LEARNING WITH HILLEL

“Knead to Know” Seminar

I was approached with the opportunity to share my love of cooking while also exploring its connection to my cultural roots through Rav Lisa's cooking seminar. The seminar was intended to help students interested in hosting Shabbat meals feel comfortable cooking by giving them the tools and recipes to both create a meal and welcome others into their homes, while also exploring Jewish studies related to cooking and hospitality. And through the inextricable link between food and culture, I have gained a new perspective on not only the way I cook and consume food, but also the way I share it with others.

INTRODUCING jUNION

We are excited to announce the formal launch of Michigan Hillel's new graduate and young professional community group, jUnion - a new student-led initiative designed for grad students by grad students.

jUnion offers the innovative programming, student-led community, supportive staff, and leadership empowerment our campus Hillel is nationally known for, to UofM's estimated 1,500 Jewish graduate students.

After a successful pilot year, jUnion's leadership team is able to expand their efforts, offering social, educational and holiday events throughout the year including graduate student learning opportunities, weekly Shabbat dinners at Hillel, and special event programming.

SENDING OFF OUR SENIORS

Senior Seminar

Senior Seminar was an amazing experience for me. I often think about big questions regarding Judaism in my own life and Senior Seminar was such a good opportunity to not only discuss those questions with others who were also grappling with them, but to make new friends! I will take the lessons I learned and new perspectives I heard with me to help make real life decisions in the future. And, I cannot wait to see how my new friendships grow as I start the next phase of my life.

ANNA SPITZ ('17)

Throughout my life, studying Jewish texts has been a mixed experience for me. Hillel's senior seminar really changed this. Through Senior Seminar, I was granted the opportunity to study and discuss with my friends and peers, in our own homes. The inherent comfort this set-up provided made it easy to reflect on the texts and see their relevance to my life. As a result, the seminar provided a comfortable and intellectual environment for me to connect with Jewish texts and truly develop an understanding of them.

Graduation Shabbat

As someone who has spent nearly every Friday night of college at Hillel, it was only fitting that I got to spend my last one at Hillel, too. It was so special to share our last Shabbat in Ann Arbor with my friends, family, and staff. Hillel was such a big part of my college experience, so I'm really happy I got to spend a little bit of graduation weekend at Hillel.

Senior Legacy Campaign

The 2017 Senior Legacy campaign brought together dozens of Jewish Seniors to meet, and ultimately exceed, a fundraising goal of $2,017. This campaign was incredibly important to us because it allowed us to give back to a place that has given so much to us over our four years on campus. Our committee decided the best gift we could give to Hillel was a gift that encourages others to keep on giving – our first tzedakah box to be placed toward the building's entrance. We are so thankful to Hillel helping each and every one of us grow.

BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS

SAMII STOLOFF PHOTOGRAPHY

Bicentennial Interfaith Conference

The Bicentennial Interfaith Conference sought to bring together members of the University of Michigan's various religious and faith communities to celebrate one another, learn about our university's history of religious diversity, and discuss what the future should hold. Through a series of speakers and a conversation over dinner, more than 120 students and community members came together to learn from one another. These conversations were not only emotionally fulfilling but set the foundation for strong relationships as we seek to move these conversations forward into interfaith cooperation and action.

Planning this event was almost as rewarding as the event itself. I learned a great deal about the Ann Arbor religious communities, and I became closer with leaders of their respective communities. I could not have organized this event without the amazing support from Hillel and the University of Michigan, along with the other great individuals on the planning team. I could not have asked for a better way to end my time as an undergraduate by using all of the leadership skills I have learned through my involvement in Hillel and campus.

EITAN KATZ ('17), GOVERNING BOARD IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIR

As the University of Michigan celebrates its Bicentennial, the Central Student Government will feature 200 of Michigan's most involved and accomplished students in their series: "200 for 200". Check out four of Hillel's leaders who have been highlighted for this honor.

I am the SOUPervisor of the Jewish Penicillin Hotline, whose mission is to deliver home-made matzo ball soup to sick students across campus for free. There's no better feeling than the "thank you" we receive from students who are often feeling at their lowest. I love giving back to my community and knowing that just one soup delivery can turn a student's day around.

SAMI STOLOFF ('19)

Hillel provides me with a community unmatched in challenge and reward. Only at Hillel can I have a difficult discussion about diversity within Judaism while enjoying a delicious Shabbat meal with 250 of my peers. The staff and student leaders create a family I am proud to be a part of and call home

EITAN KATZ ('17)
GOVERNING BOARD
IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIR

For me, the Michigan difference isn't about any single group, activity, or class, but rather the opportunity to pursue all of my passions at once. Outside of my academic work in engineering and lighting design, I found even more opportunities to explore leadership, arts, and culture. I have led the Conservative Minyan at Hillel since freshman year, which has given me the chance to build a stronger connection to my Judaism while building a community.

BEN RICHER ('17)

The opportunities at Michigan are endless. Outside of class, a typical week is filled with working on the BlueLink Project, community center shifts as an RA in East Quad, reading submissions for the Midwestern Gothic, leading Shabbat services for the Reform Community at Hillel, and more. Being surrounded by people who are so passionate and engaged in what they do, only makes me more excited to be a part of the Michigan experience.
